PUBLIC SPEAKING

Mike Winterburn
Stephen McCombie

Introduction

- This lecture will help the learner in their journey in giving presentations to an audience with practical helps and ideas.
- As a student you may not be used to speaking in public and may find the prospect challenging.

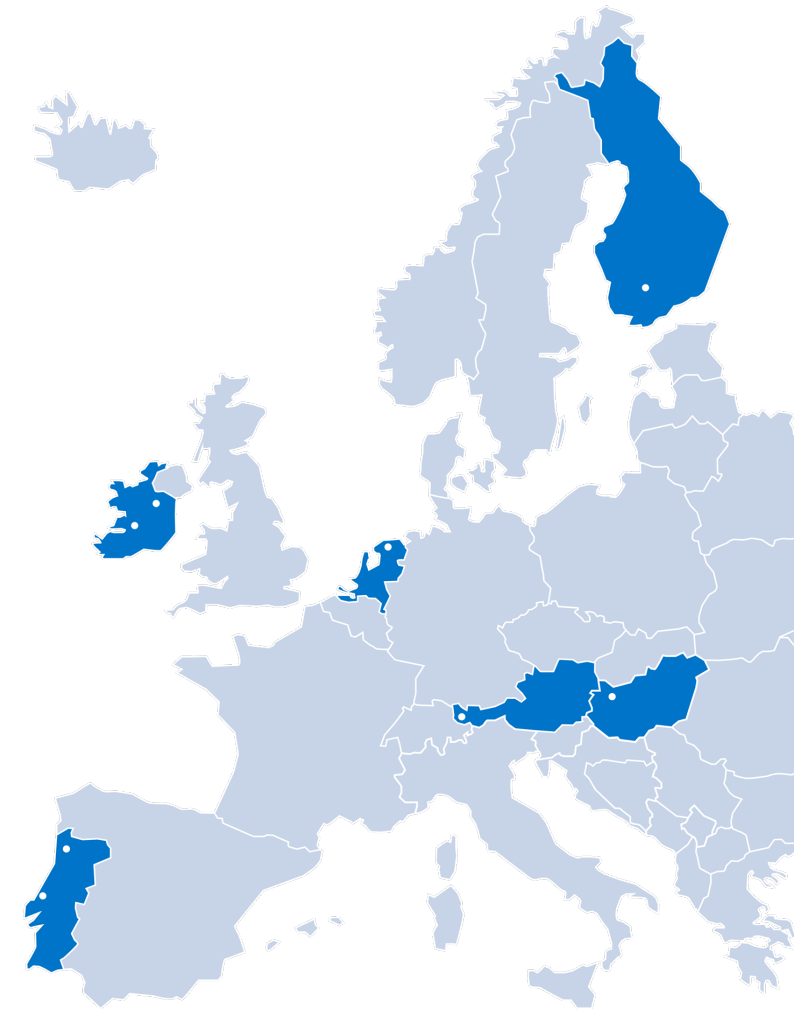

Introduction

- We will discuss public speaking tips that will help reduce your anxiety, dispel myths, and improve your performance.
- This SAP includes an opportunity to present your progress towards the end and these tips are designed to help you prepare for that time.

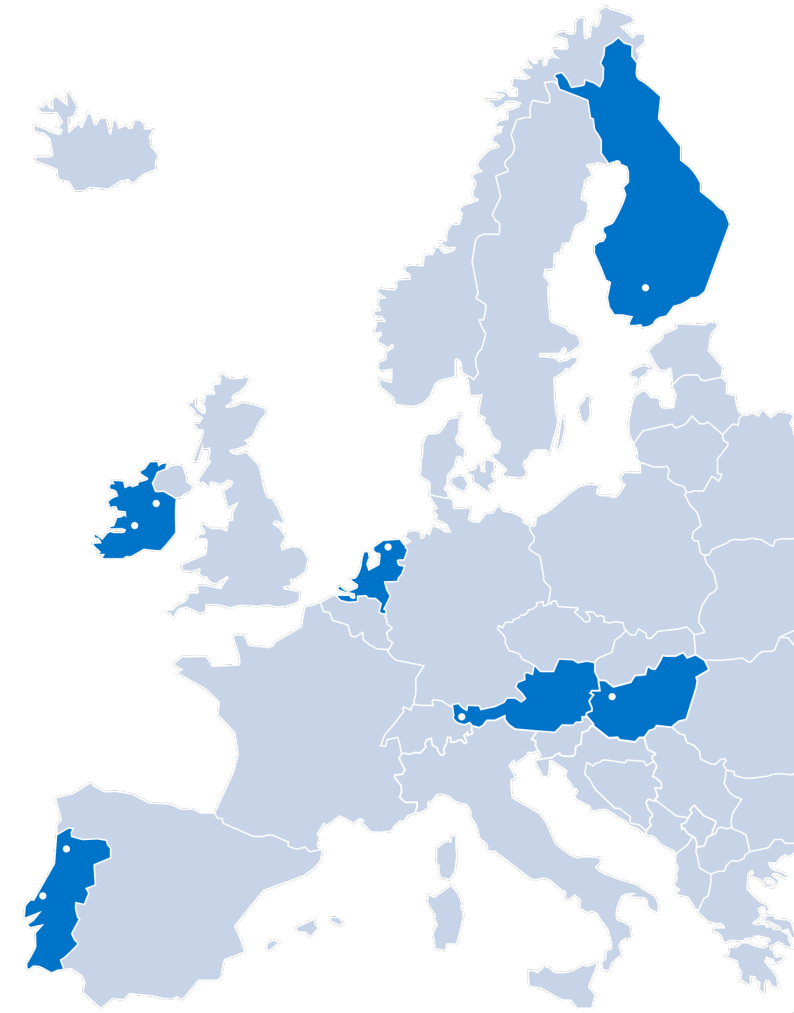

1. Nervousness Is Normal.

Practice and Prepare!

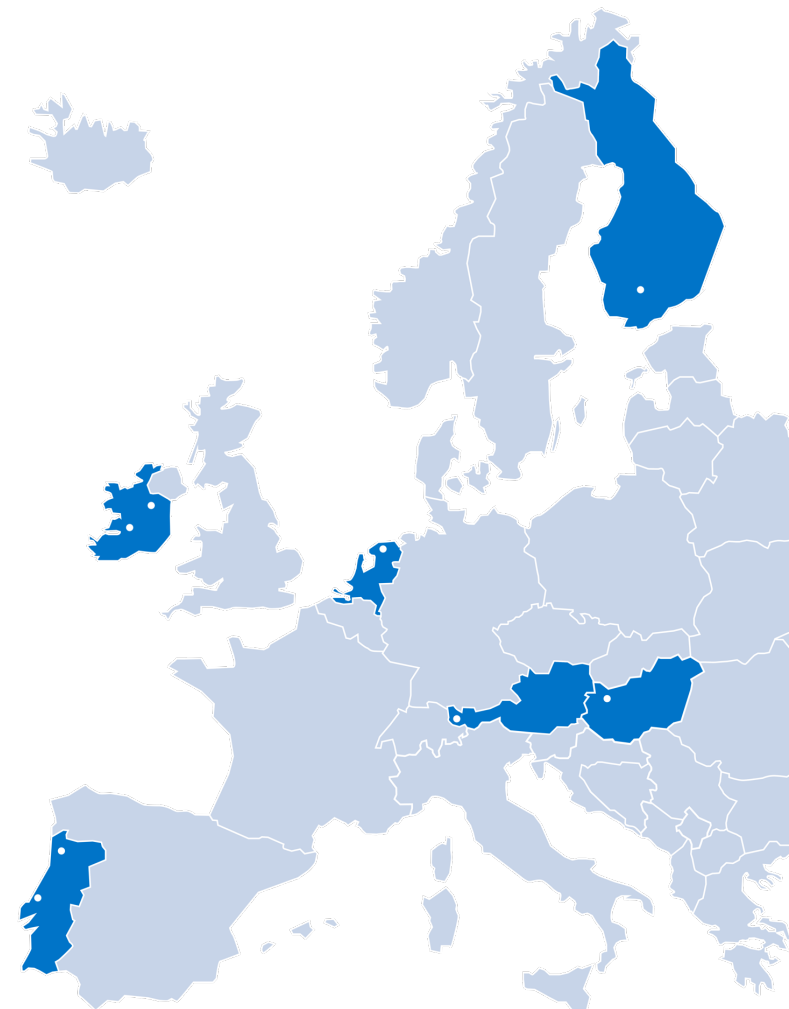

2. Know Your Audience.

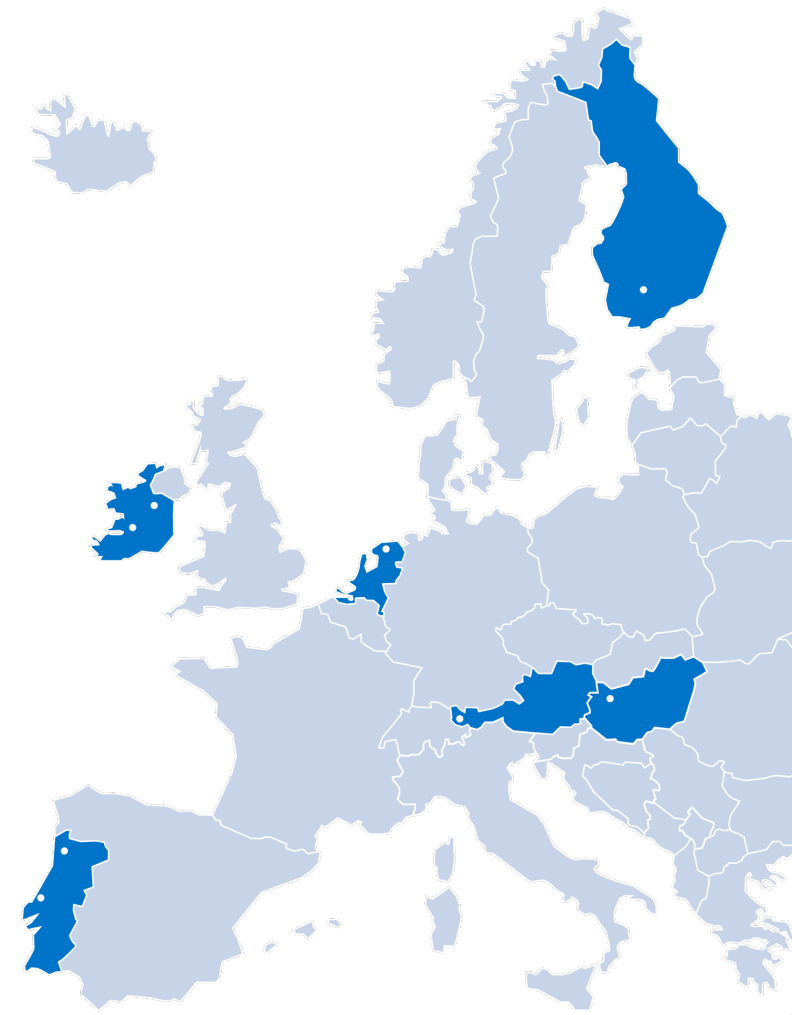

Your Speech Is About Them, Not You.

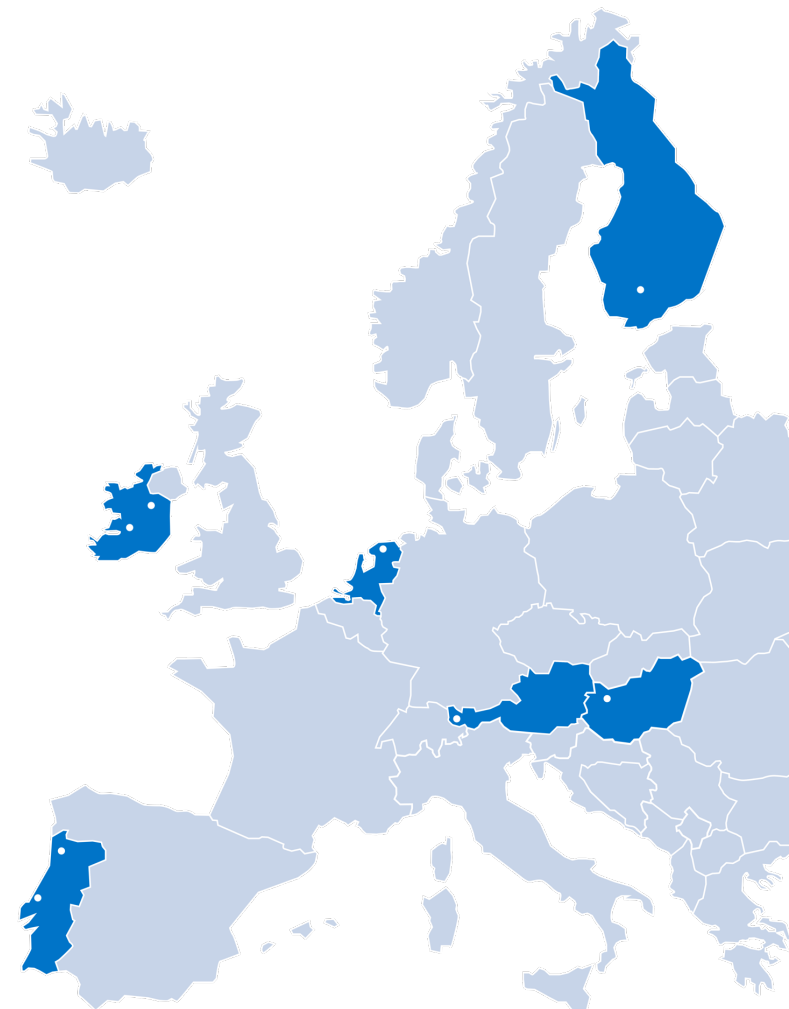

3. Organise Your Material in the Most Effective Manner to Attain Your Purpose.

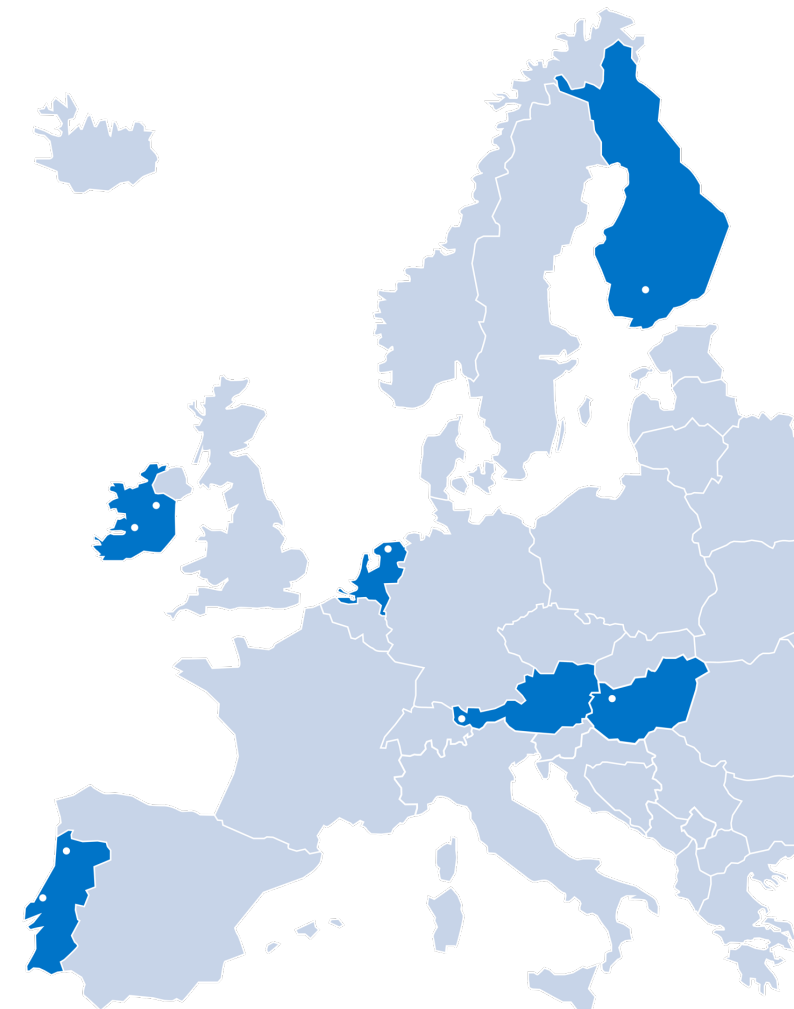

4. Watch for Feedback and Adapt to It.

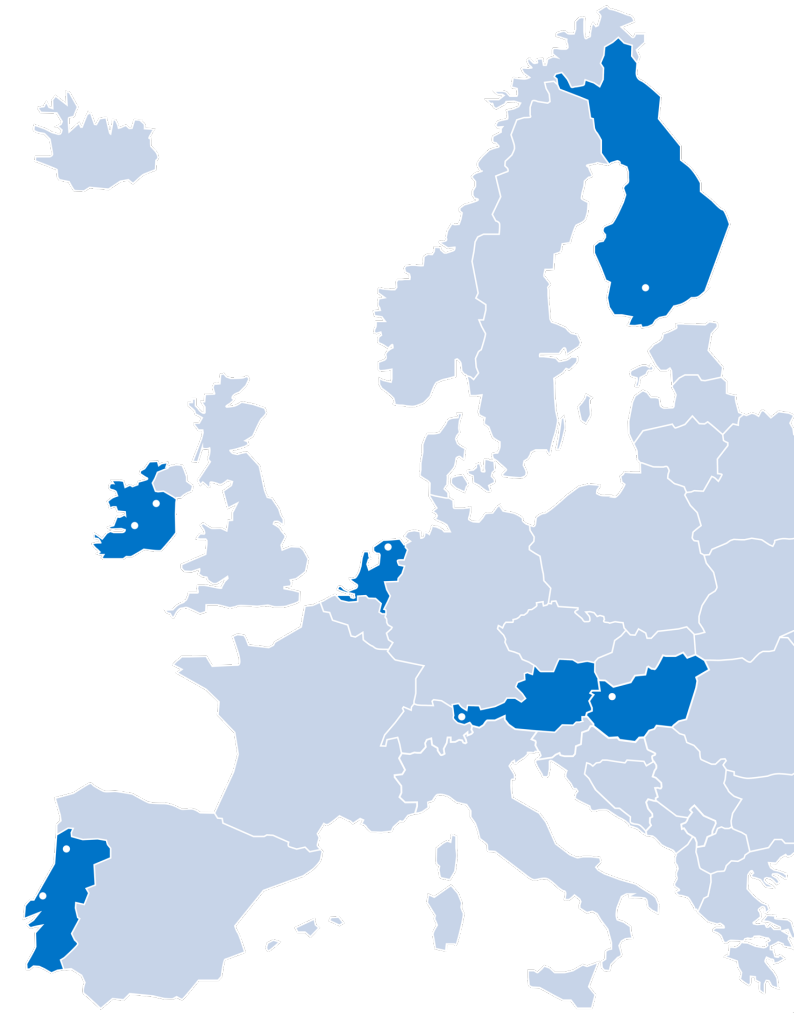

5. Let Your Personality Come Through.

6. Use Humour, Tell Stories, and Use Effective Language.

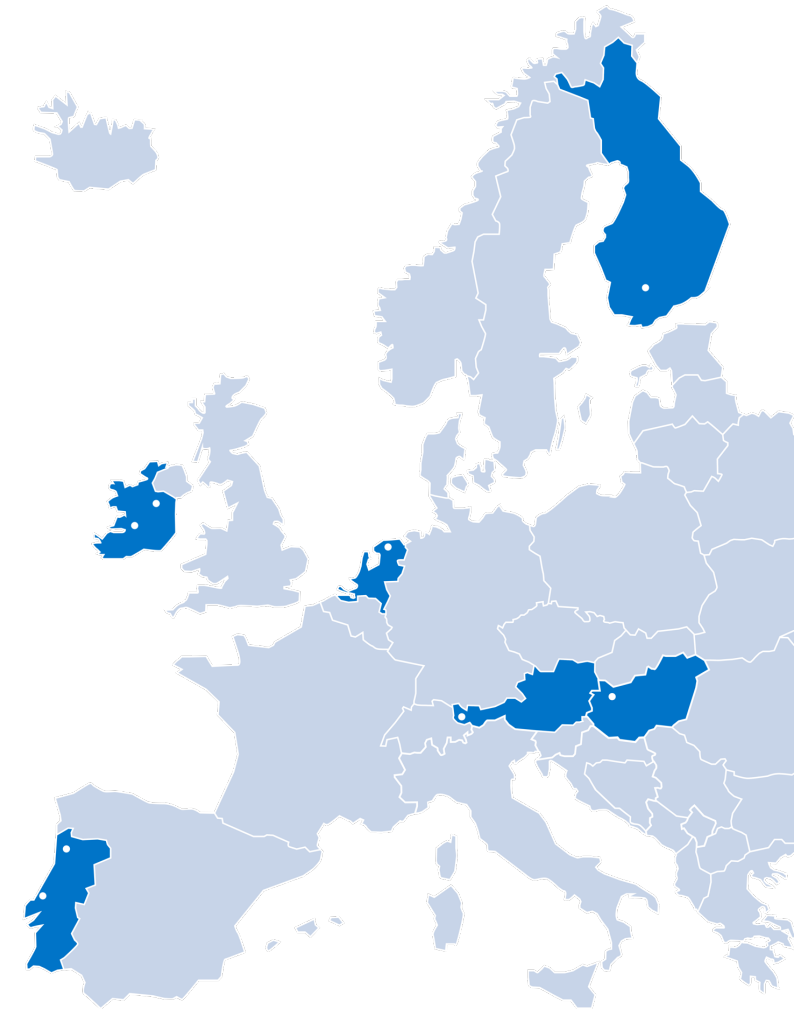

7. Don't Read Unless You Have to. Work from an Outline.

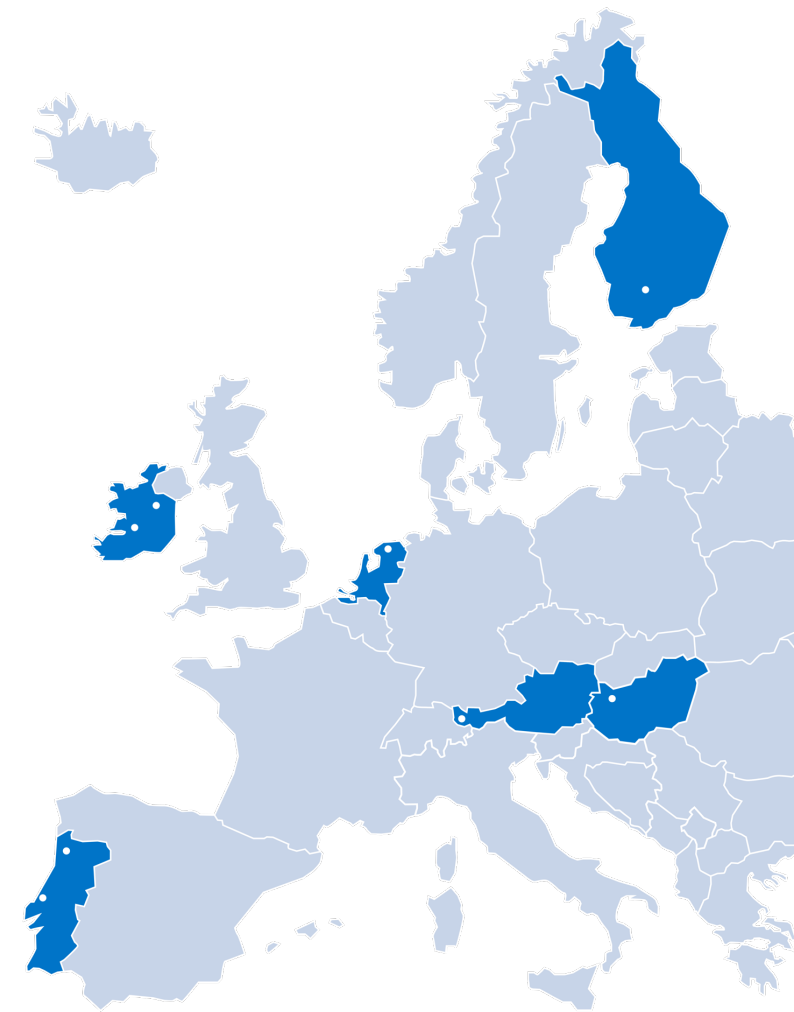

8. Use Your Voice and Hands Effectively.

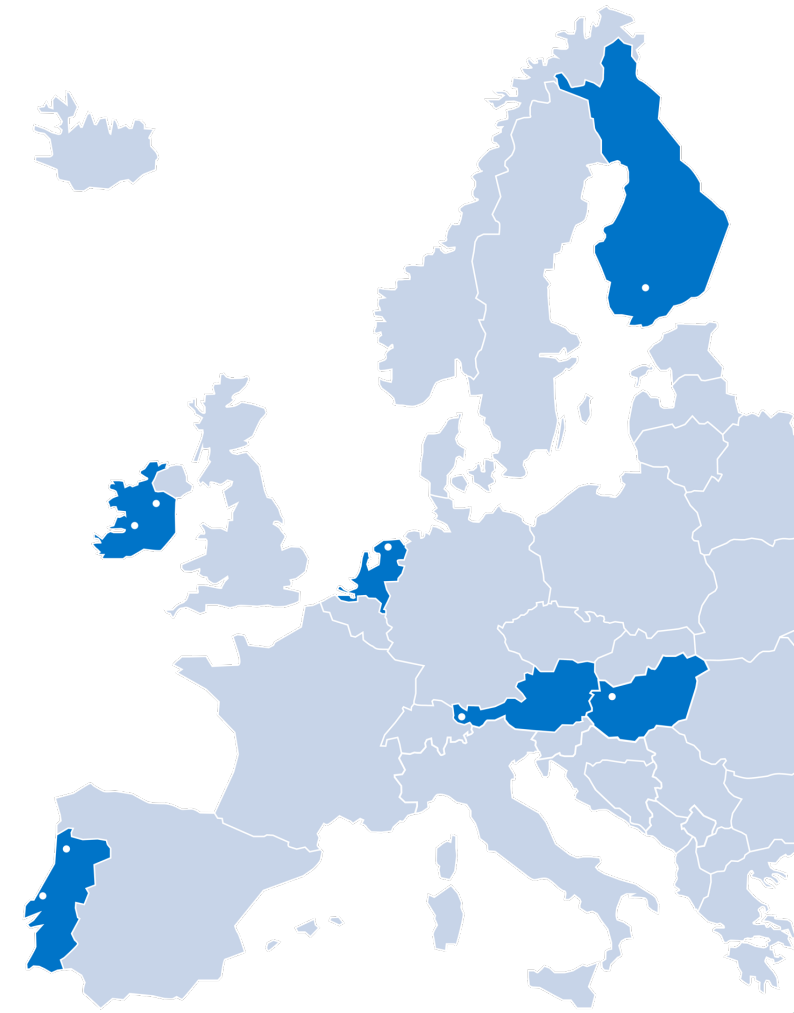

Omit Nervous Gestures.

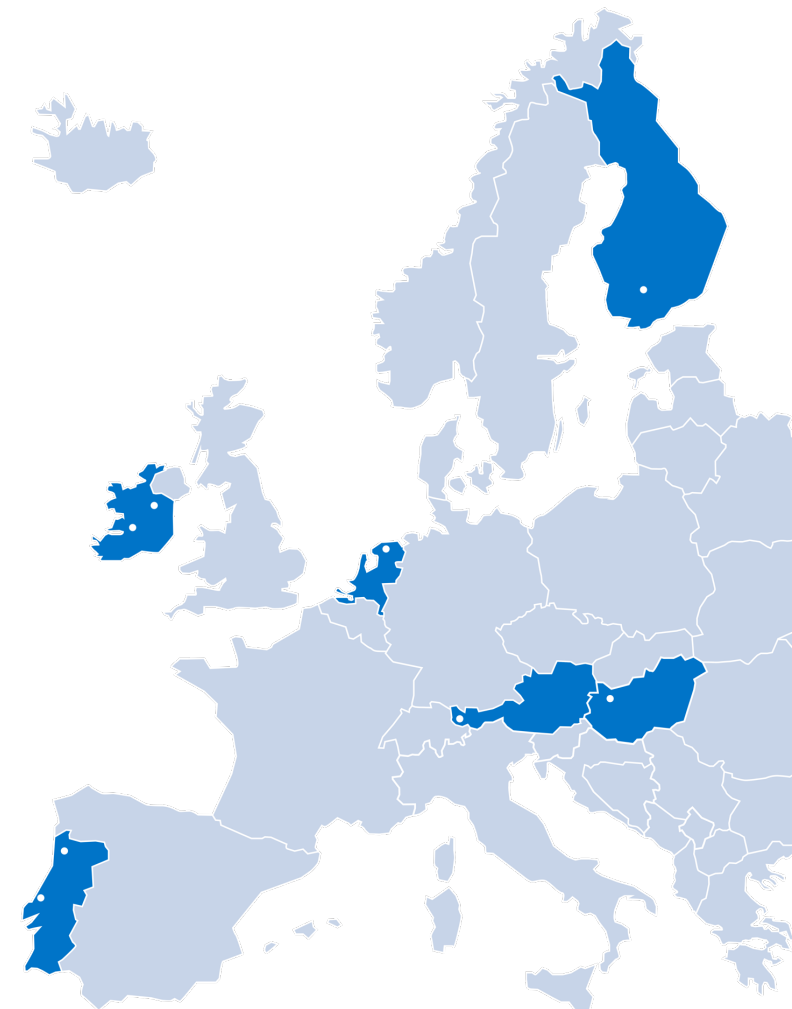

9. Grab Attention at the Beginning, and Close with a Dynamic End.

10. Use Audio-visual Aids Wisely.
